ENGLISH COMPETITION

Congratulations to all the students who challenged themselves in this year's ICAS English Competition which takes place annually in 20 countries. Students are commended for their mature conduct and conscientious approach to the test. Congratulations to the following students who received certificates and outstanding results:

Rhys Greenwood, Gabriella Katzakis, Sofia Katzakis, Makayla Metcalfe, Sophie Edwards, Tony Wong, Victoria Sakis, Raahat Shaik, James Davidson and Noah Vando. Congratulations!

TERM 3 REWARDS DAY

Students who have worked hard all year were rewarded with a cinematic experience and snacks. In preparation for the up and coming season, Term 3 Rewards Day, took a figurative trip to Mexico and immersed itself in the cultural experience of dias de los muertos, or as we know it the day of the dead. Students viewed The Book of Life by Jorge R. Gutiérrez. A tale of young Manolo, torn between his love of music and the expectations of his family, he learns to follow his heart and embarks upon an adventure that spans three fantastical worlds. After touring these realms, students had the option of then participating in a quiz to win themed prizes.

The day was a success, with students reporting:

I would love to do this again. The movie we watched was inspiring...
Ruby Pike

I really enjoyed this Rewards Day. - Mackenzie Cole

The food and the movie were awesome. - Serena Dertilis

All the Rewards Days have been really good and entertaining. – Dakota Lynch

The movie made me cry multiple times, it was great... just have more bean bags. – Lara Ri

In whole, it was a great day. – Nathaniel Ashburner

Even our toughest critic, Kai Nightingale reported, that while there were some cringe-worthy moments, "it is actually pretty funny!"
